INITIATIVE PETITION

Amendment to the Constitution

Proposed by Initiative Petition

To be submitted directly to the electors

Amendment

TITLE: The Ohio Recall Provision Amendment

SUMMARY

The United States of America was formed around the principle of the consent of the governed. The term implies that the people of a country or state have the right of self-rule and must consent, either in a direct referendum or through elected representatives, to the establishment of their own government. Due to the length of political and non-political office terms, elected officials may lose the consent of the governed before their term expires. This initiative would:

1. Provide a new mechanism to remove all county prosecutors, court of common pleas judges, all state legislators, all state officers, including the governor, appellate judges, and all Ohio supreme court justices from office before their term expires.
2. Provide for an annual vote of confidence for the aforementioned officeholders during primary elections.
3. Require that officeholders shall be removed from office if more electors have no confidence in the officeholder than are confident and the number of electors having no confidence in an officeholder exceeds the number of electors that officeholder received in their last general or special election.

The Amendment would not:

1. Create any new procedures or law of how legislators are replaced if removed from office before their term expires.
2. Require electors to gather signatures and submit petitions to remove officeholders.

FULL TEXT OF THE AMENDMENT

Be it resolved by the people of the State of Ohio: That the Constitution of the State of Ohio be amended by adopting this Article to read as follows:

Recall Provision

The elected serve by the consent of the governed. It is important that when the elected no longer have the consent of the governed that they are removed from office as expeditiously as possible.

Annually, all county prosecutors, court of common pleas judges, all state legislators, all state officers, including the governor, appellate judges, and all Ohio supreme court justices shall be subject to an annual vote of confidence on all primary ballots respective to their districts. There shall only be two choices on the ballot for each officeholder for a vote of confidence. Choice one: confident. Choice two: no confidence.

If the number of electors having no confidence in an officeholder exceeds the number of electors that are confident in the officeholder, and exceeds the number of electors that officeholder received in their last general or special election, or if the officeholder was appointed, exceeds the amount their predecessor received in their last general or special election, they shall be removed from office.
